What we are looking for

Would you like to work in a school ranked as the top state comprehensive school in the East Midlands by the Sunday Times for 2022, based on GCSE and A Level results?

Northampton School for Boys are seeking to appoint a Science Technician to provide technical and administrative support within the Science Department.

An integral member of the technical team, you will work closely with teachers, enabling them to deliver a first-class education and ensuring that experimental work forms a pivotal part of students' lessons. Your main duties will include preparing experiments and demonstrations, overseeing the use, maintenance, and stockkeeping of apparatus, and ensuring compliance of safety procedures.

You will also support with the ordering of stock and carrying out routine repairs to equipment.

How to apply

Applications are accepted via the application form at NSB Vacancies, via TES QuickApply or TeachNorthants.
