Dear Parent/Carer

Strike action by members of the National Education Union – NSB Awareness Update

You may well be aware through the national media of forthcoming strike action by the National Education Union (NEU), one of the main teaching trade unions.

There are two national days of strikes planned this term:

- Wednesday, 5th July
- Friday, 7th July

On strike days, teachers involved in the industrial action will not teach their classes or undertake any other duties. The school is currently undertaking a detailed Risk Assessment of the likely impact of the industrial action to determine whether there will be sufficient teaching staff for NSB to remain fully open to all students (with a full or amended curriculum) or partially open on each of the two Strike Days. The school will aim to remain open for as many students as it safely can and I will write to all parents with the outcome of the Risk Assessment by Monday, 3rd July at the latest.

For parental information, Sports Day, which was scheduled for July 5th has now been rearranged to Tuesday, July 11th.

Yours faithfully

Richard Bernard
