MAKE SURE YOU ALSO HAVE CLEARLY LABELLED DIVIDERS FOR EACH OF THE TOPICS TAUGHT (WITHIN SECTION B).

You will sit 3 exam papers at the end of the 2 year course:

Paper 1

Listening and responding to spoken passages.

All questions are in Spanish, to be answered with non-verbal responses or in Spanish (30 marks).

Reading and responding to a variety of texts.

All questions are in Spanish, to be answered with non-verbal responses or in Spanish (50 marks).

Translation into English; a passage of minimum 100 words (10 marks). Translation into Spanish; a passage of minimum 100 words (10 marks).

How it's assessed

Written exam: 2 hours 30 minutes

100 marks

50% of A-level

*Listening AND reading - For one question students will need to summarise in Spanish what they have understood from the stimulus text they have read/heard and marks will be awarded for the quality of Spanish used. Students must write in full sentences and use their own words as far as possible in this question.

Paper 2

One text and one film from the list set in the specification.

One question in Spanish on a set text from a choice of two questions and one question in Spanish on a set film from a choice of two questions.

How it's assessed

Written exam: 2 hours

80 marks in total

20% of A-level

Paper 3

What's assessed?

Individual research project

One of four sub-themes

Questions

Discussion of a sub-theme with the discussion based on a stimulus card (5-6 minutes). The student studies the card for 5 minutes at the start of the test (25 marks).

Presentation (2 minutes) and discussion (9-10 minutes) of individual research project (35 marks).

How it's assessed

Oral exam: 21-23 minutes (including 5 minutes preparation time)

60 marks in total

30% of A-level

* Research project - Students may choose a subject linked to one of the themes or sub-themes or to one of the works. However, students must not base their research on the same literary text or film that they refer to in their written assessment.

 Students are advised on the front of the card to consider during their preparation time two questions which arise from the material and to ask the teacher-examiner these questions at an appropriate point during the discussion.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- When you are given hand-outs, please ensure that they are filed in the appropriate section of your folder. If you miss a lesson for any reason, it is your responsibility to get a copy of anything handed out.
- It is essential that you bring your file to every lesson.
- It is your responsibility take good care of the textbooks you are given. They must be returned to school at the end of the course in the same state that they were given to you, so you may wish to cover them. The textbooks are:

AQA A-LEVEL SPANISH – HODDER EDUCATION
AQA SPANISH – OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

- You will see the Language Assistant once a week. This is a compulsory lesson and if you know that you are going to be away you must inform him / her, just as you would inform your class teacher. The Language Assistant will tell you if he/she wants you to bring any equipment.
- Use your private study time to develop your independent study skills (not just to complete homework!). Use online resources for explicit exam practice, or for more general information read Spanish newspapers or blogs.

IT WOULD BE USEFUL TO SYSTEMATICALLY WORK THROUGH THE GRAMMAR SECTION OF:

www.languagesonline.org.uk

REALLY USEFUL SPANISH WEBSITES and how to best use them!

TO WORK ON YOUR LISTENING:

You should select a short audio or video clip from the Internet. Play the clip at least three times and write a brief summary in Spanish (it needn't be any longer than 50 words) with a vocabulary list of at least 10 words. These could be key words or they could be words that are new to you and had to be looked up. Video clips are ideal as they are easier to understand.

Another good idea is to listen to Euronews and transcribe (write down in Spanish what you hear) a minute or so of a news bulletin. This will be really good preparation for the A Level course as well as improving your Spanish comprehension. You can read the transcript below the video to check your work and see if you have heard it correctly. Be mindful that sometimes the odd word or two can differ slightly from what is said in the video footage.

Spanish News

www.euronews.com

Select language 'español' and then choose from a wide variety of news videos.

www.20minutos.es es.news.yahoo.com

Follow the link to Video Noticias for three-minute news clips.

Spanish TV channel websites:

www.antena3.com www.rtve.es

Choose from the menu for the topic area you are interested in and then browse for video clips.

Spanish Radio on-line: www.cadenadial.com

TO WORK ON YOUR READING:

Select an article which interests you, read it carefully and select at least 10 new pieces of vocabulary to look up. The choice of topic area is limitless. It is a good idea to vary the topic area and to choose articles related to the syllabus topics so that you encounter a variety of vocabulary.

The best place to start is the BBC's languages web-pages:

www.bbc.co.uk/languages/spanish/news

Some of them include audio clips so you can base your listening task on the same topic.

Other useful websites:

www.elmundo.es

Spanish daily newspaper. The website gives you access to all of the day's news articles.

www.elpais.es

Spanish daily newspaper. The website gives you access to the day's news articles although you may require a subscription to view the majority of the articles in full.

es.news.yahoo.com www.abc.es

On-line Spanish daily news.

www.hola.com

Spanish celebrity gossip magazine. Subscription required to view some of the articles. www.marca.es
