

Sector of the Term: Health and Care

1

Jobs include

Nurses, Care Assistant, Physician, Administrative Assistant, Midwives, Healthcare Manager, Psychologist, Physiotherapist, Occupational Therapist

2

Skills required

Communication, Empathy, Leadership, Teamwork, Research, Planning, Problem Solving

3

Market info

Almost 1.5 million people work for the NHS alone.

An estimated 97,000 work in Social Care and the market is expected to continue to grow!

The UK's healthcare sector is booming, with a projected 50,000 new positions expected to be created in the coming years. This growth is fuelled by an increasing demand for high-quality healthcare services, driven by an ageing population and advancements in medical technology.

5

What else?

In large organisations such as the National Health Service (NHS) and private healthcare providers such as Bupa, there are also jobs for graduates in:

- customer care
- finance
- hospitality
- human resources (HR)
- IT
- legal services
- marketing
- procurement
- sales.

6

Salary

The range of salaries within Health and Social care is vast, with an average advertised salary of £26,415

7

Learn More!

Read all about working in healthcare, including the differences between public and private sector healthcare, by scanning the QR code

